Five RHS Students Rank In NMSC Semi-Finals

Named as semi-finalists in the 1963-64 National Merit Scholarship competition are John Finke, Susan Leonard, Linda Hughes, Doris Sletto and Bruce Strong.

Last spring 16,500 high schools in the United States and its territories participated in the test. Approximately 13,000 seniors are semi-finalists.

The National Merit Scholarship test is sponsored by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. This Corporation was established in 1955 by the Ford and Carnegie Foundations.

Letters of commendation are sent to 32,000 students who rated high in the test but are not eligible for further competition. Dana Arndt received a letter of commendation.

Of the 2,272 students eligible in South Dakota, 58 seniors were selected as semi-finalists. The number of semi-finalists is proportional to the number of high school graduates in the state.

Last year there were 1500 Merit Scholarship winners in the United States. The average Merit Scholarship amounts to $850 a year.

The semi-finalists will take a second test. Extra-curricular activities, high school grades, leadership qualities and school citizenship will figure in this test.

The semi-finalists who take this test will be notified in April whether or not they have won a scholarship.

VETERAN RACER STRESSES AUTO SAFETY

Bill Cheesbourn, veteran Indianapolis Motor Speedway driver, spoke to the students of Riggs High School, October 30, 1963.

Cheesbourn is one of a team of eight Indianapolis race drivers who have presented the award-winning Champion Highway Safety Program to more than five million teen-agers in the last seven years.

His subject, "Highway Safety Is No Accident" is of particular importance and interest to high school students, many of whom are taking driver training education, and countless others who are driving cars in heavy traffic everyday.

The Indianapolis race driver compares driving on the speedway with everyday operations on our highways and insists if every motorist would be as courteous and as alert as the race driver and keep his car in as good condition, there would not be the heavy traffic fatality toll being experienced today.

Cheesbourn related many of his experiences on the race track and some he has had on the highways which he travels, some 35,000 to 50,000 miles a year, to deliver his safety lectures.

Preceding the talk, the racer showed a sound and color movie made at the Indianapolis Speedway especially for use of the highway safety team.

MINNESHOSHO DAY ROYALTY HERALDED

PHS Mayor, John Finke, 12, emceed the Homecoming Coronation program which took place the evening of Oct. 3, 1963.

Gail Garness, 12, and Larry Howard, 12, were revealed as Homecoming queen and marshall to reign over the festivities.

The traditional "Indian Love Call" was sung by Ron Lutz, 12, Connie Smith, 10, Mary Jo Foss, 12, Jane Lehnert, 10, Kathy Specker, 10, and Susan Schmitt, 12, presented a dance entitled "The Queen's War Dance". "Falling Leaves" was sung by the Modernaires, accompanied by the Riggs dance band.

Dick Howard (Larry's brother), Homecoming marshall of 1958 and now a senior at SDSMT, and Mrs. Roger Pries (Suzanne Henkins), Homecoming queen of 1954, were guest speakers.

RHS Will Host Area College Day

College day will be held at Riggs High School November 19, from 1:10 to 3:30 p. m. Registration will be from 11:30 to 1:00.

Three sessions, 1:10-2:00, 2:10-3:00, and 3:00-3:30, will be conducted by representatives of 25 colleges and other groups offering advanced education.

Riggs High sophomores are strongly urged to attend at least one session; juniors are required to attend at least one session; seniors are required to attend at least two sessions.

Ten other area schools have been invited to attend. The schools that have been extended invitations are Agar, Blunt, Fort Pierre, Harrold, Onida, Murdo, Stephan Mission, Draper and Vivian.

The National Safety Council has recognized the program by twice presenting its public service award to Champion Spark Plug Company for developing and maintaining the presentation in the public interest. It has also been recognized editorially by the Saturday Evening Post and more than 5,000 letters from educators, civic leaders, and law enforcement officers attest to the value of the presentation.

John Finke, Doris Sletto, Linda Hughes, and Susan Leonard.

STUDENTS REPRESENT RHS AT ALL-STATE IN ABERDEEN

Twelve students will attend the All State Chorus in Aberdeen November 8 and 9. The following, along with their director, Mrs. Spitzer, will attend: Mary Foreshew, JoAnn Friesman, Kay Hamre, Ruth Jassman, Jackie Zoller, JoAnne Huebner, Ron Lutz, Randy Ensz, Gary Gage, Randy O'Neill, Jerry Hirschoff and Zenas Gurley.

The orchestra conductor will be Howard Leyton Brown and the band conductor, Weston Noble.

NOTES FROM US - YOUR EDITORS

Just about any time one can pick up a newspaper of any size, type, or importance and read headlined news stories concerning the discrimination of a minority race in Birmingham, Chicago, or Rapid City (closer to home). The citizens and students of Pierre and Riggs can come under this same category, because though discrimination is not practiced on such a grand scale, such prejudices and biased opinions are very much existant in a place which is not publicized at all--like Birmingham.

Many of us feel that we have no say in whether such a practice is right or wrong and therefore never express any opinion to merit and justify our reasoning; but this type of reasoning may in the end be the one deciding factor which causes the downfall of America. The citizens of the United States have an obligation to weigh every factor concerning one of the greatest problems confronting the United States and world today--discrimination of groups of minority peoples--Negroes, Indians, Jews, Catholics, Mormons, Japanese, etc. Assuming an attitude of lack-adaisy is the easy way out for most of us when we can't solve a problem and that's what some of us are doing now. Except for a few, there are not too many of us willing to give the problem our fullest attention.

In Riggs, discrimination is practiced against fellow students whose ideas, dress, and habits differ from one's own. Capabilities and potentialities are the foremost points on which one should judge another, with due consideration given to the latter characteristics; but certainly an individual should not be overlooked if he is an individualist who conforms to society but has his own opinions about the way he shall live, in general. No person should be shunned and turned away from opportunity just because his skin is dark or because he is "different". If two applicants, an individualist and a 'Joe Blow' apply for a job, three out of four times the 'Joe Blow' character will get the job. Isn't this discrimination?

People seldom think what they would do if they were in the other person's shoes; but why don't you try his shoes on for size sometime -- the only way one can know the feelings of a discriminated person is 'going through the grind' himself. If we would all apply the Golden Rule--Do unto others as you would have them do unto you--discrimination would not be practiced.

Trying to combat mistreatment, minority groups demonstrate to show dissatisfaction in the status quo. These demonstrations, if orderly are not a menace to society, but a means of expression.

By demonstrating, these people are merely trying to acquire the basic rights most men have. These people, after years of hopelessness, and disparity, hopeful now, wish only to gain the political, economic, and social status and freedom they are entitled to have.

Food for thought? Well, think how you would react if say, tomorrow the tables were turned. As of now, the Caucas race is a minority group in the world--1/4 of the population is Caucasion--while 3/4 of the world population is Negroid and Mongoloid.

REMARKS ABOUT PENCIL and PAPER

By James Douglas

Before me lie pencil and paper.

The pencil, now withing my grasp, partially consists of a graphite and clay mixture, dried and baked to form a slender rod. This rod is housed within a wooden cylinder, complete with paint job and eraser attached by means of a metal band at one end.

The paper upon which I write is a web of cellulose fibers, roughly oriented to mthese two objects by themselves have little real value, but in the hands of an inspired man they become tools.

Poets, writers, historians, artists -- creators these, change human thought into graphite smudges on paper which can be changed back into human thought in another intelligent being's mind. These thoughts to entertain, record, inspire even to conquer.

From pencil and paper we learn by the mistakes of others and profit by their achievements. We learn how others think and feel. We learn to understand and sympathize, thereby learning to co-exist in harmony.

In the grasp of intelligence all things become tools or materials, for good or for evil.

The GOVERNOR staff welcomes letters of comment, and also any suggestions for improving future editions of the paper.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

During the school year many problems arise, whether they be major or minor. In any case, these problems are acted upon by the faculty, principal, student council, or the superintendent invariably. It seems to me that something could be enforced concerning wearing apparel, hair styles, and the amount of makeup girls at Riggs are allowed to use. Recently, and it happens each year, the rule concerning the wearing of belts by boys was enforced, as always. The wearing of such is not a real detriment to a boy's appearance or to the school, but the school system allows girls to come to school painted up like witches, wearing dresses that could pass for Bermudas (however, I do not believe that there is anything wrong with coulottes providing they reach the kneecap) and hair puffed out so far that you would swear you were seeing a scarecrow. This type of girl greatly misrepresents the grooming habits of the student body of Riggs.

If these different tastes were in style it would pass; but this kind of styles is out in the fashion world.

AND THEN THERE'S BEN CASEY

by Linda Hughes
The human animal is, essentially, quite healthy. Except for colds, ulcers, psychosomatic illnesses, and communicable disease, he is seldom under the weather. Perhaps it is for this reason that illness attracts us. It is strange, but true, that illness draws popole the way a magnet draws bobby pins. One of the most fascinating things in the world to peopole is illness - preferable their own, but if not, someone else's. The slightest physical complaint draws sympathy from almost everyone. The sight of a cast on arm or leg brings pen out of pocket and purse, as everyone wishes to sign the cast and thus make the unfortunate one feel that he has their sympathy. An unexpected absence from school or office brings murmurs of concern over the absent one's health. Upong his return, he is greeted by well-wishers, sympathizers, and hypochondriacs (who wish to hear his symptoms so they may discover that they have the same bug that laid him low.)

Illness is somehow mysterious and aluring. Not only illls themselves, but the people and equipment that combat them, have a fascination for the layman. The sparkling whiteness of uniforms, the sparkling display of instruments, the baffling array of tests, charts and machines almost make us wish that we were ill so that all these things could go to work on us. Perhaps a part of our attraction to illness is that the equipment for fighting it is so darned attractive.

I don't know why illness attracts us so. My reasons are only a few of the possible ones. All I know is . . . I've got this funny pain in my lower right side. Do you suppose it might be appendicitis?

Mary Athey Wins Bond at Economics Conference

Two hundred students from all over South Dakota gathered in Huron for a two-day Economics Conference.

Pierre was represented by four students; John Finke, 12, and Mary Athey, 12, sponsored by the First National Bank, and Connie Woods, 12, and Wally Thomson, 12, sponsored by the Pierre National Bank.

Mary Athey was one of the four chosen to receive a $25 Savings Bond for participating in a speech contest. Her speech was a four-minute extemporaneous speech on "What the Economic Conference Means to Me."

Wally Thomsen, Mary Athey, John Finke, Connie Woods

If I remember correctly, girls were expelled from school in Huron because of extreme hair styles. Why then shouldn't Riggs be enforcing grooming habits of girl students?

If a rule is needed concerning these out-of-date fads, I am all for it. I believe that the way a girl dresses and looks influences public opinion more than the way a boy dresses and that the majority of the girls at Riggs should not be disgraced because of the way a minority of the girls dress and look. Many of the larger schools have dress codes which add to the appearance of their student body and Riggs is a large school which should put a dress code into effect for the WHOLE student body.

Clubs

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

One of the newest clubs in Riggs High is the Library Assisatnts club. This club has become very active this year.

On October 28 the club made a trip to Aberdeen for the South Dakota State Convention of Library Assistants. Fifteen members from Pierre made the trip. While in Aberdeen, the club members attended various meetings, and toured the new Alexander Mitchell Library.

FUTURE NURSES

The Future Nurses Club has again taken as a money-earning project the selling of potato chips at noon. The girls of the club also assist at the hospital as volunteers for various duties.

During the year, the club plans on having featured speakers talk to them, and seeing films. Mrs. Ruth Holm, the school nurse, is the sponsor.

LATIN CLUB

Latin Club met recently to get organized and elect the officers for this year. Adviser for the club is the Latin teacher, Miss McVey.

F H A

Future Homemakers of America took a trip to Huron recently for the statewide F H A convention. A chartered bus took members and advisers. Mrs. Winifred Iverson and Mrs. Mary Michalewicz are sponsors.

Pep Club Presents Gifts to Royalty

The PHS Pep Club, although not a new club, is a very active organization.

The Pep Club presented the Minneshosho Day royalty with flowers and gifts. They sold mum corsages to the students and to the crowd during the Homecoming parade.

This year the Pep Club is under the sponsorship of Miss Trish and Miss Libert. The aim of the club will be to promote a stronger feeling of school spirit.

The idea of a chartered bus to carry the members of the Pep Club to out-of-town games was-brought up and is under consideration.

FHA Attend State Meet in Huron

The Pierre Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America attended the 1,218 member state convention at the Huron arena September 28.

The meeting began at 9:30 with the FHA ritual. The Rhythm Wreckers from Huron High Svhool entertained with many favorites, including a sensational arrangement of "Peter Pan". Speeches close the meeting at noon.

The convention resumed at 1:00 with more speeches and a "Portrait of Family Life" given by the Emile Belzer family. The skit, which illustrated how a family must work together for unity, yet allow each member to make his own decisions, was particularly interesting. Group singing and announcements led up to dismissal at 4:00. Members were then free to entertain themselves in Huron's shopping district.

At 6:00 a banquet was held in the Arena, at which time the new state officers were announced. The convention was concluded with the traditional FHA closing ritual.

Teen Safety Meet Draws 250 Students

Dalene Moore, Bill Flannery, sophomores; Mary VanCamp, Jack Robinson, juniors; and JoAnn Friesman and Dana Arndt, seniors; were chosen to represent Riggs High at the Teen-Age Safety Conference to be held in Pierre, November 15-16.

Featured speakers at the conference will be Ralph Wood, superintendent of the North Dakota highway patrol and Dr. John Van Why, head of the physical education department at the University of South Dakota. Dr. Van Whu is also state executive of the South Dakota student councils.

Two hundred and fifty students from South Dakota high schools will attend the conference to discuss safety problems relating to their own age group and all-over traffic safety.

The ten finalists are Mary Athey, Cindy Cameron, JoAnn Friesman, Gail Garness, Robin Herther, Deane Markwed, Carmen Roseth, Karen Schenegge, Connie Woods, and Jackie Zoller. Each of these girls will now compete with each other in sports wear, talent, and formal wear, plus being judged on personality, poise, and character.

Halloween CREATURES

By Pamela Brown
As the thirty-first of October approaches, there are many creatures preparing for Halloween. The two I want to introduce to you in this article are the Great Pumpkin and the nerd tribe.

Many people have not heard of the Great Pumpkin, but because he is the friendliest Halloween creature, he cannot be neglected. The Great Pumpkin is the Santa Claus of Halloween. He greets tricks and treaters at the doors of homes, he guides the children safely through the streets, and where high school students are gathered, he brings his smile and gifts to the crowd. BUT, BEWARE! The felons of Halloween are also preparing for the big night. The creatures are called nerds. Now, nerds don't limit their activities just to Halloween, they work the whole year. Halloween is, however, their favorite work night.

Maybe you readers don't know what a nerd is. Forgive me for my lack of consideration. Well, a nerd is defined as an invisible, colored mass of flying muscle. The color of a nerd is very important because it determines its dangerousness. A red nerd is very friendly and likes people tremendously. A white nerd is a menace, however. He enjoys flying around and hitting people. He is not as dangerous as the blue nerd, however. The blue nerd is the one that brings instant death to those he strikes. It is because of this nerd that everyone must duck when a nerd raid is called. Because you do not know which group of nerds is attacking, you must duck for a nerd raid.

I thought I should inform you of these two Halloween personalities. Your Halloween will be much more enjoyable and safer because you know these two characters. If you remember the Great Pumpkin is guiding you, and if you can keep in mind three words-----NERD RAID! and DUCK!, your Halloween will be the best ever.

German Journalists Visit Riggs

Two German journalists, Mr. Winter and Mr. Hoffge, visited Riggs High School on October 25.

The men are reporters for the German magazine, Krisfall, which is the equivalent to our magazines, Post and Life. They are traveling throughout the Midwest trying to get to know people in this area.

They had visited various classes Friday morning and attended the game with Douglas that night. The journalists took pictures of the cheering sections and activities of the cheerleaders.

After the game the men attended the party where more pictures were taken.

The journalists are visiting smaller towns in the Midwest to get a clear picture of the Midwestern citizen.

Principal Neiles Begins Tenth Year

Never in the ten years Mr. Neiles has been principal at Riggs High has he been absent because of injury or illness. But this year has many changes in store for us---one of which is Mr. Neiles' first absence for one day.

At home one day, Mr. Neiles slipped on a wet floor and fell. This fall caused a broken rib, one day of absence, and the need of a harness for two weeks.

"When I first came here, ten years ago, there were 76 seniors; last year there were 151", is what Mr. Neiles has to say about our ever increasing enrollment.

Mr. Neiles attended high school at Centerville, South Dakota. Upon his graduation from Centerville High School, he went to Southern State Teachers College at Springfield. His major was in education. He received his B.A. and M.A. at South Dakota University.

Mr. Neiles taught all eight grades at Turner County rural school. He then taught seventh and eighth grades at White River for two years, after which he was promoted to principal for two years. From there he moved to Kennebec and became superintendent for one year. He was a school administrator at Sioux Falls for the Army-Air Force Radio Technical School for three years. During this time approximately 50,000 students graduated. After that he went back to White River for nine years as superintendent. Ever since he has been principal of Pierre High School. He has attended two to five summer sessions also.

The tremendous improvements in the building have helped the teachers to teach and the students to learn.

The visual aids and longer days are two improvements that have helped. The students are proud of the new school and so they take much better care of it. The improved conditions have caused students to be more responsive. The majority of the students are quite well behaved, anyway. The quality of the students has become better every year for the last thirty years. Mr. Neiles feels the idea that students are getting worse is a bunch of nonsense. He feels that teen-agers have more self-discipline than they did thirty years ago and before that.

Mr. Neiles closed this interview by saying, "What I resent most, in some students or people, is the idea that they can break rules that others must follow".

"Honest, Mr. Neiles, somebody swiped my belt while I was in P.E."

Hi GAIL! Hi LARRY!

by Colleen Ducey and Linda Ridgeway

Hi, Gail and Larry. Since you are the Homecoming royalty, the students would like to know a few things about you, your interests and future plans.

How did it feel when they made the announcement?

Gail - "I was thrilled when we received word who was chosen and as I have said, I got a lump in my throat because I was so deeply happy".

Larry - "I just stood there with a chill running up my back. I couldn't believe it".

Many gifts and congratulations were received by Gail and Larry. Gail received a basket of flowers from her brother Jim in Los Angeles. The Pep Club presented each with an engraved jewel box.

What are your interests?

Gail - "Well, in one word, sports. Football, hunting, fishing, swimming, tennis, you name it".

Larry - "My main interests are athletics and hunting. I also like to bowl".

Organizations Gail participates in are Future Nurses, Pep Club, choir, band, Girl Scouts, cheerleading and Jobs Daughters. Larry is active in football, G Club and student council.

Gail's future plans are in the nursing field. "With all my heart I hope I can become a missionary nurse. I would like to go to Australia". Larry says, "My plans are to attend South Dakota State College. I would like to major in nuclear engineering and play some football".

What did you think of Homecoming this year?

Gail - "Homecoming was just grand; everything turned out beautifully. I got a kick out of Larry after the coronation when he went into a telephone booth with his head dress on to call - ?? long distance".

"For seniors, I know our spirits rose when we placed our bear from the prom in the lobby. The 100 degree weather didn't hinder the parade. There was so much work put in on those floats".

"Because Larry's jacket was given to him by Mr. and Mrs. Holm, and because she was in the hospital, Larry and I went up to see her. She liked seeing us and so did the Sisters. We were shown through pediatrics and those kids just loved seeing some REAL Indians. They were afraid we would scalp them. The game was terrific! Everyone really fought hard and I know the victory bell rang for at least 20 minutes. This was one Homecoming no one will ever forget".

Twirlers Make Debut

For some time before Homecoming the Senior High twirlers had a secret. The secret? -- The twirlers were getting new outfits. They made their debut in the new outfits at the coronation.

The stunning outfits are of green corduroy with white cuffs and a white V-neckline.

Band Adopts Mascot

Riggs High School band has a new mascot, four year old, red-haired, Richard Goff.

Every day the band held practice drills outside but the band also had a newcomer who marched for an hour with the group-- none other than Richard Goff. He learned many of the drills and also learned to keep in step to the rhythm. He wears the school colors--green pants, green parka, white tennis shoes, and a band hat. He's about four feet tall and looks much like Mr. G.

Mr. Goff made his debut during half time in the Lead-Pierre football tilt. The crowd gave him a rousing applause after his performance.

"Sam" Leads Life of Riley

Sam, a horned toad from Arizona, donated to Mrs. Smith's biology class by David Hauschild, leads a "Life of Riley". Sam, as the students call him, likes the new life of carefree days.

His meals - ants - are served in bed and when he gets bored or tired he just burrows into the dirt bottom of his cage.

Horned toads are more commonly found in Arizona and Texas or more arid parts of the United States.

Herman, a garter snake, brought in, in a peanut butter jar also lives a life of leisure, as his meals, frogs mostly, are served in bed.

Quite a commotion it was when he decided to eat a snack--whole yet!

Herman doesn't mind the fuss the students make over him, but he really tears them up with his eating habits.

Pierrettes to Perform in New Uniforms

Pierrettes, a drill team formed by Mrs. Fritz Forney last year, is in full swing again. The group has grown from 28 to 32 performing girls. The girls must be from senior high, and are chosen after try-outs.

The Pierrettes are now recognized in red uniforms with accents of white and blue. They will soon be appearing in a new street outfit. A red blazer will highlight the outfit. It will be worn with a white skirt and a white scarf.

WHAT GOGES ?

GOVERNORS TUMBLE DEMONS

Argus Leader Aces Of Week Are Flannery, Gurley

The Pierre Governors evened up the annual Governor's Day Classic 2-2 when they dropped a rough Bismarck, N. D. team at Bismarck Friday, October 19, 19-6.

The Bismarck Demons were always a threat as they threw up the best offense the Governors had seen since early in the season, but a tough goal line defense held the Demons tight.

The Governors and the Demons fought hard-hitting, good clean football through the first quarter with both teams failing to score.

In the second quarter, both teams moved up and down the field, and neither team scored until quarterback Zenas Gurley flipped a seven-yard TD pass to end Rich Adams with eight seconds left, to give Pierre a 6-0 lead at half-time.

Bismarck pushed across the goal line only once when halfback Al Boerner banged in from six yards out in the third period.

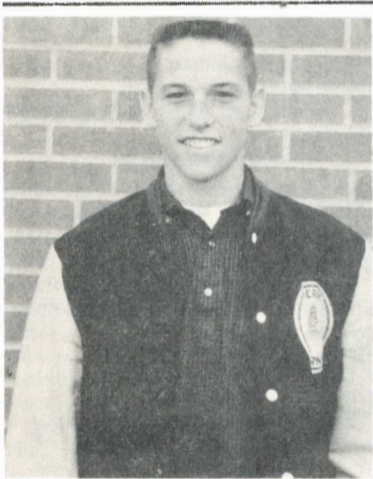

Jim Flannery, halfback, broke the game wide open in the fourth period when he raced 25 yards for his first TD. Clayton Sonnenschein kicked the extra point, giving Pierre a 13-6 lead. It was Flannery again smashing in from 17 yards out to end the scoring with Pierre leading, 19-6.

Pierre utilized a very good passing attack which gave them vital yardage in key situations with Gurley, Flannery and Gaylord Sonnenschein throwing.

Flannery kept the Demons hopping with quick kicks of 51 and 53 yards, plus 134 total yardage. C. Sonnenschein racked up 105 yards.

Larry Howard, tackle, and C. Sonnenschein and G. Sonnenschein, linebackers, and Flannery and Paul Sherburne, halfbacks, led the defense.

Jim Flannery

Halfback Jim Flannery and quarterback Zenas Gurley were chosen by the Sioux Falls Argus Leader as the Aces of the week for their participation in the downing of Bismarck, 19-6, in football.

Flannery was chosen for his brilliant ability, as he racked up 134 yards rushing, scored two TD's, and kicked for 51, 35, and 53 yards, plus completing 1 out of 4 passes.

Gurley mastered the air attack and left Bismarck out in the cold. He completed 9 out of 11 passes, including one for a TD and 114 yards.

Tackle Charlie Walker and Linebacker Dennis Germann were selected defensive players of the week in the Pierre-O'-Gorman game. End Rich Adams took offensive honors.

GOVERNORS DAY TROPHY

Governors Host Tigers in Final Tilt of Season

The Pierre Governors, riding high on a six game winning crest, will host Huron at Hollister field here Friday, November 2.

The Governors have chalked up wins over O'Gorman of Sioux Falls 25-0, Chamberlain 13-6, Lead 32-12, Winner 19-0, Bismarck 19-6, and Douglas 40-0. The Governors' only two losses were to Watertown, 21-18 and to Mitchell, 12-7.

Eight seniors will play their last game for Pierre when they tackle Huron. All eight are starters and will be missed next year. The seniors are linebacker, Dennis Germann; guards, Galen Theobald, Jerry Hirschoff, and Tom Waddell; tackles, Larry Howard and Charlie Walker; fullback, Clayton Sonnenschein; and quarterback, Zenas Gurley.

Fullback Clayton Sonnenschein and Junior halfback Jim Flannery lead the Governors' rushing attack. Sonnenschein has gained 746 yards in 117 carries for a 6.3 average per carry. He has also scored 8 touchdowns and booted 11 conversions, for 59 points. Flannery has rushed 538 yards in 78 carries and a 6.9 average per carry. He has scored 4 times for 24 points. The pass attack has been led by Zenas Gurley who has hit on 36 of 59 passes for 366 yards and 3 touchdowns. Led mainly by these boys, Pierre has rolled up 2,272 yards rushing and passing and has scored 173 points to their opponents' 57 points.

Governors Fall in Final

The Pierre Governors, plagued by their own mistakes, fell to the Huron Tigers in the Governors' football final 20-6 at Hollister field Friday, November 1.

The Governors were unable to capitalize on Huron's mistakes, including a dropped punt which Pierre recovered at Huron's 40. They also let the game slip through when they fumbled on Huron's 1 yard line.

Huron tallied first with Halfback McCalister going in from the four with the conversion good for a first quarter lead of 7-0. They tallied again when McCalister took in a 12 yard TD pass. Pierre scored later in the second quarter with Gaylord Sonnenschein smashing in from the two. The half ended with Pierre trailing 13-6. The second half was scoreless until McCalister again smashed over from the three with 8 seconds left.

Governors Dump Warriors

The Pierre Governors put down a spirited Winner team 19-0 at Hollister Field Wednesday, Oct. 9, to run their record 4-2 and gain their fourth straight victory.

Early in the first quarter Pierre was in a hole, third down and 22, when halfback Jim Flannery flipped a 40-yard pass to end Rich Adams on Winner's 35. Zenas Gurley then raced 36 yards for the first TD with 8:42 remaining in the first quarter.

After battling through most of the second quarter without scoring, Bob Moore, a guard, picked up a loose ball and raced 36 yards to the end zone as the gun went off for the half-time, giving Pierre a 12-0 half-time lead.

Both teams returned to play hard-hitting ball which resulted in a scoreless third period.

With 6:39 remaining in the final quarter, Clayton Sonnenschein plunged over from the one-yard line and booted the extra point to give Pierre a 10-0 lead.

C. Sonnenschein and Flannery led the Pierre offense with 105 and 101 yards rushing respectively. The defense was paced by Larry Howard and Dennis Germann, who each had nine tackles; and Tom Waddell and Charlie Walker, with seven tackles apiece.

Pierre Drubs Douglas

The Pierre Governors ran their season's record to 6 wins and 2 losses, and captured their sixth victory by belting Douglas Air Force, 40-0, Friday, October 25.

The electrifying running of Clayton Sonnenschein provided the punch, and the stout defense of Larry Howard provided the stopper as the Governors pushed across the Patriots goal line in every period. C. Sonnenschein, 185 lb. fullback, blasted through the line for 189 yards in 12 carries plus two touchdowns and three conversions.

Zenas Gurley, quarterback, started things rolling when he ran three yards for the first TD. C. Sonnenschein kicked the conversion. Jim Flannery got the second quarter going when he flipped a pass to C. Sonnenschein, who then with a key block from Gaylord Sonnenschein raced 73 yards to score. C. Sonnenschein, also added the conversion. 45 seconds later G. Sonnenschein intercepted a Douglas pass and ran it back 32 yards for the score and a 20-0 half-time lead.

C. Sonnenschein got the only tally in the third period when he smashed in from the 6 yard line.

Gurley scored for his second time in an 18 yard run with C. Sonnenschein kicking the conversion.

Phil Hanson got his first chance of the night with 14 seconds left and made good use of it, smashing through for 11 yards and a TD. Hanson also ran the extra point.

Governors Win HOMECOMING TILT

A rough forward wall and a torrid offense led by Clayton Sonnenschein paced the Governors to a 32-12 victory over the Lead Goldiggers at Hollister Field October 4, to climax Homecoming festivities.

After three quarters, it looked like the Governors were in for a long, hard fight, when they led only 13-12. But two key injuries to the Lead eleven was the turning point of the game, as the Governors pushed across 19 points in the final period.

In the first quarter, Pierre kicked off and thwarted Lead's first offensive effort to gain control of the ball. The Governors' offense began to roll and Zenas Gurley plunged in for the touchdown from four yards out. Lead retaliated early in the second quarter with quarterback Ron Eastmo going in from the one-yard line. The extra point try was blocked by Larry Howard and the score was 6-6. Late in the second quarter, quarterback Gurley flipped to end Rich Adams for 14 yards and pay dirt. C. Sonnenschein ran the extra point and the Governors led at halftime, 13-6.

In the third quarter, the Goldiggers started a drive that netted a touchdown on a 14-yard pass from Eastmo to end Toby Barraclough to make the score 13-12. But in this drive they lost star halfback Charley Dock, which ended Lead's hopes for victory.

In the decisive fourth quarter, the Governors tallied early, with Gurley going in from four yards out and C. Sonnenschein running the extra point, to give Pierre a 20-12 lead. Third string quarterback Ray Kelly provided the game's thriller when he raced 65 yards to the Goldigger's 11. C. Sonnenschein then raced to score and give the Governors a 26-12 lead. Pierre scored once more with Kelly going in from the four to end the game, 32-12.

Pierre's offense was led by C. Sonnenschein whose bruising smashes into the line netted him 151 yards total rushing, only three yards less than Lead's total rushing and passing of 153 yards. Gurley with 94 yards, and Kelly with 76 yards on three carries backed Sonnenschein up.

Gaylord Sonnenschein, Dana Erikson, Paul Forney and Larry Howard paced the defense.

Long Run Helps Governors Down Cubs

The Governors made it two in a row with a 13-6 win over the Chamberlain Club on Friday, September 27.

The game got off to a slow start with neither team finding the end zone until the third quarter.

Pierre's first score came in the third quarter when halfback Jim Flannery hit end Rich Adams with a pass covering 40 yards.

Chamberlain drew blood in the third quarter when halfback Don Schoenard went in for the score from the 25-yard line.

In the fourth period, fullback Clayton Sonnenschein returned the kick 81 yards for the winning TD.

Quarterback Zenas Gurley flipped end Dana Erikson a pass for the extra point.

Pierre posted a total yardage of 253, 70 yards of which were passes from Gurley and Flannery.

"Do you really think I'd be good at football, Mr. Trautner?"

A young man decided the time had come to take his first shave. (A girl had looked at his downy cheeks the other day and asked when he was making braids.) So this guy got lathered up, placed a new blade in his new razor and began. Just as he took his first stroke--the mirror slid off the wall.

"Just my luck," said our hero, staring at the empty wall. "My first shave and I cut my head off!"

ROAMIN' 'ROUND RIGGS by MK

High Adventure in Africa's Heartland was the subject of PHS's first assembly program from State University of Fargo, North Dakota. The narrator was Neil Eskelin.

Mr. Eskelin was born in Detroit, Michigan in 1938. He has been traveling since he was ten years old, and has visited 31 countries on five continents for a total of over 1,000,000 miles. He is one of the founders of America's first noncommercial television stations and has appeared on over four hundred television stations.

The Boys' Glee Club, Sophomore Girls' Glee Club, Junior and Senior Girls' Glee Club, Mixed Chorus and A and B Band have been added to this year's Music Department of Riggs High School.

Three new practice teachers will be joining the Pierre school system. Mr. James Olson will be teaching under Mrs. Ecker and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Linda (Leedon) White, teaching under Mr. Lindboe; and Mr. Richard Fabricious will be teaching under Mrs. Ann Iverson and Mr. B. Crance.

The annual Radio Essay Contest sponsored by the South Dakota Tuberculosis and Health Associations and Radio station WNAX, Yankton, South Dakota, has been entered by 11 Pierre High School students. They are as follows: Judy Disburg, 11, Fred McCarroll, 11, Linda Ridgeway, 11; Teri Telford, 11, Karen Varilik, 11, Randy le Beau, 11, Jim Groff, 11, Penne Bloom, 11, Linda (Christie) Iverson, and Diane Davis, 11. Cash awards will be awarded to the winners. November 14 is the deadline date for local elimination and winners here will have their essays sent to station WNAX for state competition.

Two men from KPLO-TV were at PHS taking pictures of the various classes and activities Friday, November 1. The gym, home economics room, library, and study hall were just a few of the places they got pictures of. No word as to when we may expect to see them on TV was given.

Pictures were taken in the school lobby on Monday, October 7 by William Oliver alias "Jack Webb" of Delmar Studios. An interesting sidelight to this annual photographic session is the variety of comments ranging between apprehension and full scale dismay.

Seniors should be getting their pictures taken as soon as possible for the Gumbo.

The Junior class are to start ordering their class rings from Ferley's Jewelry. Ferley's will be taking orders starting November 4.

Wise men talk because they have something to say; fools, because they have to say something. - - - Plato

Joanne Huebner, 12, Barbar Forchtner, 11, and Judy Terry, 12, assisted with the Carnegie Library orientation classes. The classes have been completed with the lecture work presented by Esto Hatfield, librarian.

The ninth grade class was taken to the library for two class periods. The first session teaches about the library, the arrangements of the books, the card catalog, and the coordination between the catalog and the book on the shelf. The last session dealt with reference books. A work session was held at the end of each class. A test was given to the ninth grade English classes by the English teachers, Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. Sarsam.

A Halloween theme set the stage for the 22nd annual Pierre School Faculty Party. The pot-luck supper was planned and hosted by the McKinley, Washington and Riggs grade teachers at the City Hall Community Room.

Student Librarians Convene in Aberdeen

LONI NORMAN ELECTED V. P.

Loni Norman was elected Vice President of South Dakota Student Librarians' at the 5th annual Convention held at Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen on Monday, October 28, 1963.

Others attending the Convention from Riggs were Dixie Barrett, 12, Jeanie Barrett, 11, Judy Disburg, 11, Nancy Grose, 12, Maryellen Kleinsasser, 11, Pam Brown, 12, Maureen Suiter, 11, Boyd Spencer, 10, Linda Iverson, 10, La Donna Oshel, 12, Connie Nafus, 12, and Kay Hins, 10, Ruth Filmore, 9, Nancy Lamster, 9, and Christine Grinager, 9, attended the convention as representatives from the Junior High. Also in attendance were eleven students from Fort Pierre.

Mr. Bernard Duffy, superintendent of Fort Pierre Schools, drove the bus which took the 27 students and their advisors, Mrs. Brown (Pierre), and Mrs. Aplan (Fort Pierre) to the convention.

The welcome was extended by Dr. J. Howard Kramer, President of NSTC. Dr. Kramer explained the reason for the confusion which prevailed during the meeting. The college was told to expect 100 students a few weeks ago. Then about 5 or 6 days before the meeting, they were told 200. As the registration totals rose, it became apparent that over 300 students were in attendance. The previous arrangements were not large enough for the size of a group and the meetings had to be held in the auditorium.

After lunch, Isabell Ackley spoke to the assembly of the history of Aberdeen from the first house to the present city.

After the convention adjourned for the year, those interested were escorted through the new library at NSTC, The Beulah Williams Memorial Library. The library is arranged in the style of a supermarket.
