

The Senior Governor 1988

Yellow-Line Gazette

“Pretend I’m a car...Imagine there is a yellow line on one side of me and a yellow line on the other side of me...”

As you read these four pages of brilliance, the creators of the Senior Governor would like you to keep a few things in mind. We are tired of keeping the ignorant masses of Riggs students informed; therefore, this paper is not news, but the creative project of our collective imagination.

If you have any criticism for this or any past issue of the "Governor," well, we sympathize and would like to say...STUFF A SOCK IN IT!! But really, the jokes here are meant to produce a chuckle, not to injure any party. Even if a joke is too deep for your intelligence, our advice is to laugh anyway to avoid embarrassment.

REMEMBER WHEN....

The roller rink was the hot place to go
 Everybody wore friendship pins on their shoelaces
 Dissecting frogs in Biology I was the big stress
 Everybody wore polo shirts and a bandana
 Todd M. and Tom S. got crushed between two cars
 Graduation was at least 12 eons away
 It was cool to carry a comb around in your back pocket
 Debbie B. took a flying leap down the stairs
 We couldn't wait to read the "I Spy" in the Wee Wac

THINGS THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN

Couches in the senior lounge
 A pizza party in physics for Einstein's birthday
 Coke machines in the lobby
 More State "AA" Tournaments
 No yellow lines in the parking lot
 Mrs. Chandler really telling us the facts of life in seventh grade
 An 18 drinking age

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO

Old fashioned love
 Mr. Kurth's hair
 Jason L.'s Swedish girlfriend
 Mr. Merk's bucket
 SAPPO
 Jason W.'s House pass he lost in Washington DC
 Sophomores kissing up to seniors
 Pits, the cat, and the Doritos

STEP #1: Put on sunglasses.
STEP #2: Look at the above picture.
STEP #3: Identify the man on the right (if the glare isn't too much for your eyes).

Senior 'Governor' Staff goes undercover

As their last assignment, the members of the Senior 'Governor' Staff went undercover to answer that eternal question...

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED WHAT GOES ON IN THE TEACHERS LOUNGE?

THE GOOD, THE BAD, THE UGLY....are all behind THE DOOR. Often the laughter emitting from THE ROOM would add credibility to these clever disguises.

The Future of '88'??

Like sands through the hourglass, so are the days of our lives...Suddenly, it is 2013 and time for the 25 year reunion of the Class of 1988. As the alumni come back to Pierre, they find that some things have changed and some have stayed the same.

Riggs High School still stands on Broadway. Inside, the toilet paper still rips off the roll square-by-square, and Mike is still cleaning the English Wing with the radio blaring on his janitor's cart.

Merkwan, now wearing dentures and biofocals, is still calling students down to the office for PDA. But as the graduates of the Class of '88 see each other, they realize they have become middle-aged adults with careers and families far away from Riggs High School.

Kathy Ackley while attending the Kentucky Derby, the P.A. system breaks down and she calls the final stretch without a microphone. Tara Adamski decided that maybe skis aren't so bad and changed her name to Adamski. Mike Anderson shaved all his hair and became a Hari Krishna "just to be cool." Nicole Anderson is a professional tennis player. Nicole Asmussen pursued a career in the glass grinding field. David Axtman got hit with a tennis ball on his forehead while playing in Wimbledon 1999 and was forced to have a lobotomy.

Connie and Mary Baade became Rock and Roll's answer to "The Judds." Jeff Bame was cut seriously while selling ginsu knives on national T.V. Kathy Bartels takes an active roll in thanking everyone for their support.

Cheri Bartlett became a therapist in a shoulder-molestation clinic. Katy Bauder ran cross country (back to Wisconsin) to find the man of her dreams...George of the Jungle. LaRae Bauske married a plumber and works at a nursing home and as the "Welcome Wagon" lady in Blunt.

Kris Becker commands the entire United States CAP militia. Dee Beckwith invented a new bike that sews your clothes and vacuums your floor all in one. Thomas Black races his Volkswagon in the Indi 500...and wins!

JoLynn Blake teaches speed typing, and her slowest student types 100 words per minute. Amy Boyd replaced Ed McMahon as the M.C.

of Starsearch. Julie Brehe is a millionaire recluse.

Stacey Brooks loses her voice...but learns the art of mime to compensate. Dawn Burrows runs a gopher farm in Oklahoma. Deb Butt is being paid large amounts of money to wrap toilet paper on the little cardboard rolls for the Charmin Company.

Sean Califf returns yearly to PHS to sing "Duke of Earl" at half time during basketball games. Kerri Campbell became the new face on Campbell soup labels. Steven Case takes over Tony Dean's job on South Dakota Outdoors.

Sharla Cass was arrested by the Humane Society for her cruel and obscene treatment of rats in Bio II. Susan Chase married Steve Wahl and they watch "Revenge of the Nerds" for the rest of their lives. Brian Christenson joined the Navy and became Top Gun, then was asked to star in Top Gun: The Final Mission.

Brett Christiansen cut his arm in a chain saw accident but makes a fortune supplying new scenes for Texas Chainsaw Massacre V. Travis Christoffer changed his name to "Gorgeous Trav" and grapples on Wrestlemania XXX. Eric Christopherson was hired by Cracker Jack Inc. and puts the prize in every box.

NO!! Not your finger - the fabric!!

Ode to Riggs High School (Sung to the tune of 'Glory, Glory')

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the burning of the school
We have tortured every teacher, we have broken every rule.
Mr. Merkwan tried to stop us, but we flushed him down the stool and he ain't our principal NO MORE!
GLORY, GLORY HALLELUIAH...Glory, Glory Halleluiah...Glory, Glory
Halleluiah...he ain't our principal no more.
Teacher hit me with a ruler, shot her in the butt with a rotten coconut and she ain't our teacher NO MORE...(chorus)
