Have you noticed any desks without their owners in your classes lately? This may be due to a few childhood germs catching up to a few "children" they missed the last time they were in the region.

It seems these villians, who go by the names of "Measles" and "Mumps" are rather fast and capture many unsuspecting victims. They both make their presence known by rather obvious calling cards of red speckled skin or puffy skin in the lower cheek or jaw region.

The "Double M Team" is very tricky and usually catches you when you are not in shape. The solution to this is to keep in shape. This includes balanced meals, avoiding late hours, etc.

In the meantime, enjoy yourself and don't worry about the germs too much. Look on the bright side of the situation, you get a rest in bed with a possibility of receiving a few get-well cards.

Next time you enter a classroom, check to see who happened to be the victims of the "Double M Team" or the accomplices

Regional Meeting of FHA Hosted by Pierre Chapter

The annual regional meeting of F.H.A. attracted 263 girls from Agar, Faulkton, Gettysburg, Highmore, Miller, Pierre and Wolsey. The girls convened at 9:30 A.M. on March 4 at the SDEA building.

Mayor Griffin of Pierre gave a welcoming speech on "The Greatest Housewife I Know". Club business occupied the group until noon. The girls went to the Lutheran Memorial Church for lunch.

At 1:00 P. M. Mr. J. Ledbetter, an English exchange teacher from Gettysburg, gave the afternoon opening speech. More club business followed, including the installation of new regional officers for the school year 1964-65. Nancy Tobin of Pierre was elected regional secretary.

After the installation, about 3:30 P.M., the girls came up to Riggs for refreshments and tours of the high school.

The theme of the meeting was "F. H.
A.'ers Enjoy Their Families". The girls talked about ways to get along with their families.

Four Faulkton girls presented a Hootenanny number for the program. They were liked so much they were called back on stage for an encore.

Bismarck Choir Performs at Riggs

The Bismarck Choir, under the direction of Boyd Gregor, and consisting of 80 high school members visited Pierre. The choir gave a concert Saturday night, April 4th, in Riggs auditorium at 8:00.

The members of the choir were the overnight guests at various homes. The housing committee consisted of: Linda Krosschell, Ruthie Jassman, Stephanie Clinton, Penne Bloom, Martha Ackerman, and Pauline Theim. In charge of publicity was Randy O'Neill.

The Bismarck choir has been rated highly by critics, and was received very well by Pierre Saturday night.

Just recently the Bismarck choir was chosen by Governor Guy as the official Governor's Choir.

Terry, Huebner, Saynor Selected Band Concert

Three Pierre High seniors, Judy Terry, alto clarinet; Joann Huebner, clarinet; and Richard Saynor, percussion; were selected to be in All-State Band this year. This was the 14th annual year of the concert. Mr. Clarence Sawhill was guest director. It was held in the Watertown Civic Arena on Friday, April 4.

The band consists of 160 members from high schools throughout South Dakota. The members were selected at a contest in Mobridge in March. The best players from each high school attend and perform for judges, who then chose the best 160.

The three Pierre members left on the evening of April 2, which gave the band day of practice before their concert.

Achievement Day Draws RHS Pupils

Saturday, April 4, State College Achievement Day was held at Brookings. Dr. G. L. Cross from the University of Oklahoma was the guest speaker.

During Achievement Day, students from the top 10% of the class; or in R.H.S. traveled to Brookings to take a series of tests. They did not have to be planning to attend State to take the tests. Scholarships were awarded, according to test ratings. These were presented at a banquet on the evening following the test.

Riggs Who's Who Selected

This year's Who's Who Party was once again a huge success due to the efforts of the Gumbo staff. The party was held at the Elks Club on the evening of February 28th. Students danced to the music of the Master of Ceremonies, Ron Startells. Whalpoole, announced the winners in the various categories, who then amused the students by performing various tasks assigned them. The students were chosen on a 3-2-1 basis, with Senior votes getting 3 points, Junior votes - 2 points, and Sophomore votes - 1 point.

The various winners were: Prettiest and Handsomest: Jackie Zollar

Gary Gage Best Dressed: John Finke-Kathy Moser Most likely to succeed: Rick Blair-Judy

Best Physique fiqure: Carmen Roseth Clayton Sonnenschein Personality Plus: Gail Garness, Dennis Germann

Prom Preparation Is Underway

The Junior Class has begun preparations for this year's banquet and prom. Invitations have been sent out to all the Seniors and some replies have already been sent back to Judy Hoffman. The event will be held April 18 and the Juniors are hoping it will be the best one ever. It is the hope of the junior class that the banquet will be attended by 100% of the Junior and Senior

"Southern Hospitality" Impresses South Dakota's When Miss Connie Woods returned to Pierre Sunday, March 22 from America's Junior Miss Contest in Mobile, Alabama, her words were "One of the most worthwhile and thrilling experience a girl could

From the very beginning of the trip it was "rush, rush, rush, but so exciting." Connie, along with sixteen other girls who were also representing northern states, went a day early and visited the World's Fair of Flowers in Chicago. This was an extra part of the trip and the feature that Connie said was "very nice."

Monday, March 16, was the official opening day of the contest, which began with a televised parade welcoming the girls to Mobile. "You always hear about southern hospitality," noticed Connie, "but now I really know what they mean." For instance, South Dakota and even about the Aberdeen quintuplets.

In all there were three nights of preliminaries and one night of finals. There was a scholarship award , talent, voice, and appearance, and a physical fitness award made each preliminary night. The days were filled with rehearsals for the various

One of the outstanding instructors Connie had during the contest was Mr. Gene Bailes, who in Connie's words is a "terrific person", He did the production of movie, "Bye, Bye Birdie," and is going to Texas this summer to coach such stars as Ginger Rogers.

During the visit to Mobile, Connie stayed the Jay Flod residence. "Wonderful at the Jay Flod residence. "Wonderful people. They opened up their house to me and really went out of their way to make me feel at home. All of the host families do this on a voluntary basis." Of course, one of the most unforgettable persons Connie met was Linda Felber, Junior Miss of Washington state, and now America's Junior Miss of 1964. Linda was Connie's roommate. "She reminds me a lot of Grace Kelly," said Connie. "She has a tremendous personality. Everyone at the contest really liked her. I just can't say enough about her."

The only things Connie regretted about her trip was that she didn't have enough time to see the country. "We were given only one day for touring and the country down there is so beautiful. I wish that we had been given more time to "I really hope that the Junior Miss Contest of South Dakota gets a bigger turn out next year," says Connie. (There were only ten contestants this year.) Here are her reasons. "It is very worthwhile because of the scholarships. I was awarded a $500 scholarship at the state level. Six thousand, four thousand, and two thousand dollar scholarships are given to the top five on the national level, and they can be used anywhere. The contest is very well chaperoned. You even have a chaperone to drive you to and from Fort Whitint, (the building where the events were held.) Also, the whole contest will be televised nationwide next year.'

Connie also had some advice for anyone who is interested in entering the contest next year. "Keep up your grades. A straight A average helps!" Also, "Bone up on all types of readings. Seven of the eight finalists in the national contest this year had readings for their talent.'

Just as Connie ended the interview with "I can't find enough words to express how I feel," I would also like to end this article with "I can't find enough words to tell you how proud I am, and I'm sure all the Riggs High School students are, of you, Connie

STUDENT TEACHERS COMMENT ON RIGGS

Our roving reporters have discovered five new faces in the halls. Are they Yesl students? Are they teachers? Yes! They're student teachers! The five student teachers are: Marlene Bossman from Pona, Nebr. who teaches Physical Education and Biology; Frances Hagen from Mobridge, S. Dak. who teaches English and Spanish; Ronald Epping from Emmets-burg, Iowa who teaches English; James Henningsen from Lawton, Iowa who teaches Physical Education and math; Jack Mills from Rapid City, S. Dak. who teaches History and math. Four come from the University of S. Dak. and Jack Mills comes from Northern State Teachers' College. They are all seniors at their respective colleges. They arrived March 23 and will return to college on April 24.

This interview was conducted in a rather jovial atmosphere. Between giggles, we gathered these few tid bits of information: Practice teaching is an eye opening ex-The students at Riggs High perience. are co-operative. Pierre is a tremendous town, but expensive."

We believe that the high school students of next year will be very fortunate to have these future teachers for their instructors.

This difficult translation was done by Peggy Carl (10) as a project for the study of "Julius Caesar" in Mrs. Frink's English II class.

The following is from Mark Antony's Funeral Address

Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears;

I come to bury Caesar, not to praise him. The evil men do lives after them;

The good is oft interred with their bones; So let it be with Caesar. The noble Brutus Hath told you Caesar was ambitious; If it were so, it was a grievious fault,

And grieviously hath Caesar answered it. Here, under leave of Brutus and the rest --For Brutus is an honorable man; are they all, all honorable men--Come I to speak in Caesar's funeral. He was my friend, faithful and just to me; But Brutus says he was ambitious; And Brutus is an honorable man.

LATIN

Amici, Romani, cives, date mihi vestros aures;

Venio ut Caesarem sepeliam, ne laudem eum.

Malum quod viri faciunt post eos vivit; Bonum paene cum eorum ossibus huniatur; sit cum Caesare. Nobilis Brutus Dixit tibi Caesarem esse cupidum; Si id ita essent, erat acerbum peccatum. Et acerbe eum respondit.

Hic, Brute et aliis volentibus--

Enim Brutus est honestus vir; Quoque sunt omnes, omnes honesti viri--Venio ut in sepultura Caesaris dicam. Erat amicus meus, fidus et aequus mihi;

Sed Brutus dixit eum esse cupidum; Et Brutus est honestus vir.

ASK US --

Dear Ackle and Jat,

Help, help,...help, help, help!!!!!!! There's this funny looking boy running around our school and every time he sees me he pinches my cute, lovable, little cheeks. Lately my cheeks have been quite black and blue and puffy. I look simply awful and everyone laughs at me when I walk down the halls. I have to hide to avoid him.

Please HELP mellillill Puffy

Dear Puffy, Have you tried "Cover Girl?" A & J

Dear Ackle and Jat,

I have a very big problem: I can't get up enough nerve to talk to a certain girl and I like her very much. I think she might like me but I'm not sure. Please advise me as to what to do. I don't have trouble talking to other girls. Desperate

* * * * * * * *

Dear Desperate,

If this girl is in any of your classes, perhaps you could "accidentally" meet her on her way to this class, and walk with her the rest of the way. As for talking--mention something that is of interest to both of you.

A & J

Dear Ackle and Jat,

My problem may not seem to be important, but I just have to have an answer. My boyfriend likes me very much, but he is such a flirt!!!! What should I do? He can't seem to resist flirting with all the girls. Is that just his friendly nature? Thank you. To Flirt or not to Flirt

Dear To:

So long as this boy likes you so much, why are you so worried? If he wasn't well liked by people, would you like him quite as much?

* * * * * * * *

A & J

Dear Ackle and Jat,

I find myself very pleasant to know, excellent conversationalist, neatly dressed, and extremely friendly. However, as in all good things, there is one drawback. I am a victim of bad breath!!!! Can you imagine? Every time I open my mouth I'm a sure knockout. For instance, the other day there was a terrible smell in the school halls. Everyone blamed it on the chemistry room---but alas! I was the offender.

I ask you to please give me some worthwhile advice for my problem.

Bertha Badbreath

Dear Bertha:

We would advise you to write to Doctor Hal I. Tosis, who is now experimenting in Breath Control for natives of Tangenyika with this problem, and he will advise you on control for bad breath. A & J

Fashion Feature Sleek Look

The fashion conscious people have been noticing a new look lately, the sleek look. This look is especially noticeable in girls' hairdos. The long sleek is infor the pres-This hairdo is carefree and smooth looking but ask any girl who has acquired this look whether or not it's easy to achieve and I'm sure they would answer you with an emphatic "NO"!

Along with the sleek profiles of the hairdos come the free and easy clothes styles. Leading on this line are the shifts, A-line skirts and the wrap-around skirts.

Boys, don't feel left out! You've got your own version of the sleek look. The collarless jackets, slim pants and the neat trim haircuts form your part in the smooth fashion style.

Loafers contribute to the carefree look for both boys and girls and, of course, now that the Beatles have hit this look (shaggy and easy) seems to be in and goes with the sleek trend.

So just open your eyes and see if you can observe these new styles.

Food for Thought?

There are reports filtering in to us concerning some students eating in class. It seems that three characters are gulping down tidbits rather than learning morsels of information.

One hears a thud, thud, thud, as an apple rolls down the aisle. The sound of an empty pop bottle clinking in a desk bottom can often be percepted by sharp ears. One such person nibbled down an apple while he sat in the desk in front of the teacher's desk. Others were reported to have had a repast of sandwiches and pretzels.

There is no end to what they will next do! Another flash bulletin stated that they had a thermos of tea and plans for a still! These actions must be stopped!

ACKLE and JAT

Dear Ackle and Jat:

It seems my grandmother has this terrible urge to referee basketball games. She didn't have to tell me that she had this urge, but I know because everytime she comes to a game, she wears a black and white striped shirt with a whistle around her neck. Please tell me what to do before next year's basketball season. A loving grandson

Dear Loving,

Why don't you get her interested in ice hockey--Maybe she'll break a leg, or maybe even a neck....

Dear Ackle and Jat,

I have a friend who is continually borrowing money, yet she never returns the borrowed amount. I wouldn't mind except that they are usually a large sum, for instance a dollar at a crack.

How can I get my money without offending her?

"Sucker"

Dear Sucker,

If you are desperate, you will have to ask her for your money, and If she gets offended, she isn't really a very loyal friend anyway.

* * * * * * * *

A & J

Dear Ackle and Jat.

Is there anyway that you know of to reduce the size of one's feet? I wear size 11 1/2 E and I'm only 5' 2". I need help!!!!!

Clementine

Dear Clementine,
Just tell the shoe salesman that you wear a 5 1/2 A and the rest of it is his problem.

Dear Ackle and Jat,

I have a problem that has been bothering me for quite some time now and I wonder if your professional advice might be helpful.

When you have a date and he comes to your home to pick you up, and after you get your coat out of the closet, if he doesn't offer to help you on with your coat do you hand it to him or should you wiggle into it by yourself? Sincerely,

Wiggley

Dear Wiggley,

Most well-mannered boys should offer to help with your coat; but if they don't just start wigglin'.

A & J

RULE, RULE ON THE WALL

'Twas the day before May And all through the school, Every student was aghast At a newly made rule. The bulletins were hung On the board with care In hopes that the students Would read them there.

And when they did!!

I think that it is very cruel To impose on us such a rule! Alas!

PIERRE LEGION RELAYS

HOST 50 SCHOOLS
April 17, marks the day on which the regional track meet will be held. Approximately 50 schools extending as far west as Rapid City and as far east as Flandreau will be participating in this meet. This is the oldest relay meet in the state. Rapid City is the defending champion in class A. There are three classes--A, B, and C. Schools are classified according to enrollment. The class A section of the regional track meet last year was very close, leaving Rapid City with 22 points. Flandreau 19 1/2 points and Pierre with 19 points. Winning teams are awarded with trophies. Winner of mile relay team receives the Governor's trophy which is presented by the Governor.

Team Spirit High As BB Season Ends

On February 29 the Pierre Governors traveled to Mobridge to take on the tough Mobridge Tigers. The trip proved to be successful as it seemed the Governors could do no wrong. The Pierre team did a fine job of shooting and rebounding against the highly rated Tigers. Leading scorer for the Governors was Gaylord Sonnenschein, who burned the nets for 28 points, followed by Lyle Stuart and Dana Erikson who added 12 and 9 points respectively. The quarter scores were as follows:

1

32 12 7 47 64 26 41 53

Preparing themselves for the Section VI Tournament the Governors traveled to Redfield in their final non-tournament game. Although the Governors were looking to notch another victory they had a deep respect for the abilities of the Redfield boys, which proved to be well founded as the Pheasants upended Pierre by a margin of 72-55. High point man for Pierre was Gaylord Sonnenschein with 16, followed by Jim Flannery with 8. The remainder of the scoring was well distributed between the remaining players. Quarter scores were as follows:

2 3 42 Pierre 24 14 55 Redfield 13 31 48 70

In the opening round of the Section VI Tournament the Governors drew the tough Pine Ridge Thorpes but this fact didn't depress our boys whose team spirit was the highest that it had been all year. The Pierre team used a very aggressive defense and a well balanced scoring attack to down the Thorpes 72-56. Gaylord Sonsenschein led all scorers with 18 while Clayton Sonnenschein and Jim Flannery contributing 11 with Lyle Stuart close be-Quarter scores were: hind with 10.

Governors Thrill Crowds at State A

Our Pierre Governors started a close game trend in State A that carried right on through to the overtime final. Pierre started the ball rolling with a fine performance against tough Sioux Falls before bowing 49 - 46. Mitchell nipped Rapid City 51 - 48 for the other first day thriller.

In the second day action Pierre again was downed in a thriller when with one second remaining a 30 foot shot by an A rule whose strictness is impressed Aberdeen reserve, turned a Pierre victory Upon the minds of us . . . distressed into a loss 49 - 48. Rapid City lost all their composure and was beaten by 20 points. After two straight heart-breakers many expected our boys to give-up; but they came back on the final day only to be beaten by Rapid City 44 - 43. This was only the beginning of an exciting day as Watertown beat Aberdeen 52 - 51 in the consolation game. At night Sturgis rallied from a twelve point deficit to a 56 - 54 victory. The final was all a final could be as at the end of regulation time the score stood 44 - 44. Mitchell went on to grab the crown by defeating Sioux Falls 49 - 46.

Gaylord Sonnenschein was given honorable mention on the all Tourney team, while other Pierre contributors, were Clayton Sonhenschein who tossed in 23 points and grabbed 46 rebounds, an average of 15 rebounds a game. Lyle Stuart, Jim Flannery, and Dana Erikson also made good showings for our Governors.

We also thank the Student Body for the great support they gave our team at Huron. Although we finished eighth we have nothing
