

T.F. RIGGS HIGH SCHOOL
ANNOUNCEMENTS Tuesday March 2, 2021

It is time to start registration for the 2021-2022 school year. This week, counselors will be in Study Halls to assist students in updating their academic plans in Student Portal:

Tuesday, March 2: All day in Guided Study Halls

Wednesday, March 3: All day in Learning Center Study Halls

Thursday, March 4: All day in Tutored Study Halls

Counselors will be available in the Library all day March 9th and in the morning on March 10th for those students with Opens. Those that don't have a Study Hall or Open can visit with the counselors before or after school any time starting March 1.

Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana will be offering two options for Interior Design workshops this summer:

- Two (2) ten day on-campus workshops during the summer
- And a four-week online workshops during the summer

For more information and registration please go to our website at www.bsu.edu/designforum. Please feel free to call 765.285.1471 or e-mail rahmadi@bsu.edu with any other questions.

Seniors – please check your email and reply to Mrs. Olson if you are eligible for the red cord for graduation.

Next Student Council meeting will be at 7:40 in Mrs. Olson's room on Thursday, March 4th

There will be a newspaper planning meeting in classroom 220 on Friday, March 5 at 7:35 a.m. Be thinking of article ideas!

The SD Discovery Center is hiring STEM education interns. All high school students are eligible to apply and the link is <https://sd-discovery.org/job>

FBLA Members: The spring conference is fast approaching. Please be diligent from here on out in checking your email as Mrs. Ulmen has been and will continue to send messages in an effort to communicate resources, dates, and deadlines for items pertaining to conference. Since Mrs. Ulmen does not have all of you in class at this time, she counts on this mode of communication. Thanks.

FBLA Members: We will be taking a FBLA Chapter photo on Wednesday, March 3 at the beginning of 3rd Period. Please stop down and pick up your FBLA t-shirt to wear for the photo if you have not already done so.

STUDENTS: Class fees for pottery, photographic arts, metals and jewelry are due.

Congratulations to Jordan Morley for being named Fine Arts Student/Performer of the Week. This actually dates back to the end of last semester. Jordan is a natural leader and very powerful singer. She is a leader in her section in both Concert Choir and in Chamber Choir. She always enjoys singing and it shows every day. She is always ready to go, attentive, and always wanting to learn. Recently she received a Superior rating on her vocal solo at Small Group Contest. Congratulations Jordan!

Blake Jones (grade 12, bass clarinet) and Sophia New (grade 12, clarinet) were selected to participate in this year's South Dakota High School All State Band. This is Blake's first time being selected and Sophia's second – her first was last year and the concert was cancelled due to the pandemic. They were two of nine students that auditioned from TF Riggs. Both students are members of the Armstrong Band under the direction of Dr. Haley Armstrong, Director of Bands at the South Dakota School of Mines and Technology.

This year's event will be held at the Mitchell Performing Arts Center on March 26 and 27. The Wallace and Olson bands' finale concert is on March 26th at 7:00pm; the Armstrong and LaCognata bands' finale concert is on March 27th at 7:00pm. There is limited seating, and only people with vouchers may attend. Masks are required.
