

BONDED EMPLOYEES AND OFFICERS

School district business managers must be bonded for an amount determined by the School Board. The bond of the business manager will not be less than the amount that may come into his/her possession at any one time during the school fiscal year.

School personnel authorized to be in charge of proprietary and fiduciary funds must also be bonded. When several school district personnel need to be bonded, the Board will approve a blanket bond.